

A vibrant illustration for a children's event. At the top left, a rooster with a black and white patterned bib flies. In the center, Momotaro, a young boy with a peach on his forehead, sits on a wooden boat. He is dressed in a purple and pink kimono and holds a white folding fan with a red circle. To his left, a grey dog with a blue collar holds a blue-handled sword. To his right, a monkey in a green kimono and a green hat with a red circle holds a wooden staff. The boat is decorated with a peach. A vertical banner on the right side of the boat reads '桃太郎' (Momotaro) in white Japanese characters. A purple bird flies in the background. The background features a sunburst pattern in shades of yellow, orange, and pink.
